Blackout on these mothafuckas

Fold to the flow in a black chair
Go for the gold never back here
Know that I roam where the gats flair
Tell the homies don't get trapped here
You can hear the blood from the sirens
OGs try to share a little guidance
But we young and we bread with defiance
King of the jungle never been lyin's, nigga I am
From where cops start with the firing, pop when there's silence
Walk like a tyrant
Boss in the hood used to park by the hydrants
Stars in the roof and a jaw full of diamonds
Funny how we floss never smiling
Maybe it's the cost of surviving
In a hotel all alone and you never know if you getting lost in The Shining
Putting Axe on in the bathroom, fuck was I all last June
Took a bad bitch had to send it back to him
Back in that tunes getting back in that groove
Amariana, George a lot of black lives may take y'all eyes post all black mov

All black squares then get back to it
All-All black squares then they back to it, to it

TikTok dance on the wrist watch
After every advance is a pit stop
Plug got more mugs then a gift shop
And they try to blame the hood on hip hop
A nigga learned to watch out for the beat cops
'Fore I ever found out about the beat drop
Pow how the G packs in the treetop
Heat pop, Streets hot

A kid was a square from the start but I never had fear in my heart (nah)
In a fair an affinity for words so I feel I was made for the art
On the Mac where I'm at, you would know that that's rare
Handmade cut all black glassware
Vizzy came back with a lot of black squares
Gotta bring a bag out, blackout
Bringing all the fire, niggas act out
Let my niggas play it at the traphouse
If the nerds put the word of a hack out
Bring my Commodores on board - Jerry Stackhouse
I coach and I ball
You hope that I was approaching my fall
