

End Game

XV

Kinda wanna work through the pain
The creation of the world is insane
I feel it in my soul like the rain
Think it's time we end this game
Just wanna let it go
Let yourself up and show some more love, and
Searching for answers
They right in front of you just pick and choose, yeah

Hey!
Yeah

How many songs must I write just to tell you I'm wrong
I been on the move so much, but I never been gone
Mad test through this quest, where the questions would form
Searchin' for some kind of answer that was there all along
I been keepin' shit inside, but still been gettin' out
Out here living life these others rappers spittin' bout
Driving through my old hood and the kids is out, gotta floss
Take some time, pull em' to the side, tell em' what it cost
Tryna get it, out the mud, never bought a diamond pendant
Broski gettin' dollas but those commas led him to a sentence
Shorty trippin', call dropped, she lost my attention
Only service you getting this high is a flight attendant. Damn
I know that you was calling on me
Girl we sprouted like Alf-Alfas, you like Darla to me
Then I started to dream, never knew how hard it would be
What it cost to be this great, I know ya'll don't relate. Look!

Look, Some of my kin can't relate
Chess piecin' every move and every win that I make, look!
Yeah! I make endless mistakes, done been through the pain
We at the end of this game. Look!
Yeah, Some of my kin can't relate
Chess piecin' every move and every win that I make, look!
Yeah! I make endless mistakes, done been through the pain
We at the end of this game. Look!

Yeah, cuz' nothing's never given to us
Knowing they should just invest if they really knew us
We from the hood and they scared of how we influenced
It's all good, it's understood, how the culture move it
Don't be truant, hard work in everything you doin'
And I ain't tryna lose em', man I'm just speakin' to it
Learn from Losing cuz' them L's got Lessons to em'
A challenge stop running away instead of stepping to it
That dream is music, this hard work, I'm just working through it
Til' I prove it, Gotta Do It, like them Checks on Shoes and Any "L" I took, know I gained respect from losing Strive For Greatness, I'm The One, ask who they choosing?
Lebron James. Yeah, my city on my Back when my time came. Moment in time change
They get fake, can't relate to that mind frame
So things change, let me end, game. Yeah!
Freddy!

Look, Some of my kin can't relate

Chess piecin' every move and every win that I make, look!
Yeah! I make endless mistakes, done been through the pain
We at the end of this game. Look!
Yeah, Some of my kin can't relate
Chess piecin' every move and every win that I make, look!
Yeah! I make endless mistakes, done been through the pain
We at the end of this game. Look!
