

Ending Credits (Interlude)

XV

This is the last song that we're singing
After this nothing would rhyme
This is the last time that you'll ever see us
After this you're gonna go blind
This is the last time, that'll be the last time
You wake up to the day without end
This is the last time that you're gonna lose someone
After this it's you and your friend
It's you and your friend
