

That's the Move

XV

Perfect

I might spend my funds when I want, yeah, that's the move
I might make a flip, take a trip, yeah, thats the move
Up On Cloud 9, wild times, oooh, that's the move
We just going up, latitude, ooh, that's the move
That's the move! That's the move! Yeah, that's the move!
That's the move! That's the move! Yeah, that's the move!
That's the Move. Goin' up, that's my Latitude
That's the Move. Goin' up, that's my Latitude

Finishing move off the turnbuckle
Luchador from the Roof to Floor
Empires build and then turn rubble
I have learned gotta yearn for more
Bet on myself, and I'm betting a lot
Develop my game and I level the spot
They might not know who I am
But trust and believe, that I've never forgot
You ain't gone sell me no vision
I am that dude, you ain't gon' tell me no different
Walk in the shoes that I been in, you would be trippin'
I flipped and did it like gymnast
I stayed in my mind and stayed mindin' my bidness
Mind on my money not mindin' these bitches
You mind if I mention my Mama said, "Donavan winnin'"
That was an honest description
Since I been on my grind, at the age 1-5
I was killing shows live, I was killing ho's hype
I was killing flows like
I don't ever walk soft, I might crush your toes like
I might fuck your whole wife
I might come and roll like
Andrew Clay that's No Dice

I might spend my funds when I want, yeah, that's the move
I might make a flip, take a trip, yeah, thats the move
Up On Cloud 9, wild times, oooh, that's the move
We just going up, latitude, ooh, that's the move
That's the move! That's the move! Yeah, that's the move!
That's the move! That's the move! Yeah, that's the move!
That's the Move. Goin' up, that's my Latitude
That's the Move. Goin' up, that's my Latitude

I'm game play on game day, you sell tickets and tail gate
Your drive like White Bronco, my Drive like John Elway
These Happy Days, and I pop my collar like Fonz, yeah
Drop a line on my Moms, yeah
Chase round my nephew Dom like I'm Agent Hobbs, ha
AM to the PM what a weekend
Got ya BM in my DM, tryna see when I'm a be in
You make plays, I'm the GM, I make trades when I don't need them
Might just drop you for no reason, Basket cases can't keep a weave in, I Told you the moves I was makin' and niggas was hatin', sayin' I'm procrastin atin'
A pro at just waitin'. I had to go to the basement I had the dough I was bak in'

This a moment in the making. Want a photo go and take it
Makin' heads spin, when I win mills, and pop locks like I break in Goin' Liam Neeson for the Taken, time to go then say when Nights out at the Days Inn, no vacants, she naked
My chick a snack, might just eat that, after school
I play the game and have no rules, act a fool, that's the move. Yeah

I might spend my funds when I want, yeah, that's the move
I might make a flip, take a trip, yeah, thats the move
Up On Cloud 9, wild times, ooh, that's the move
We just going up, latitude, ooh, that's the move
That's the move! That's the move! Yeah, that's the move!
That's the move! That's the move! Yeah, that's the move!
That's the Move. Goin' up, that's my Latitude
That's the Move. Goin' up, that's my Latitude
