

The Falling Off

XV

- Uh. You ready?
- Yeaaaa
- Vizzy!

Mix up my Mocha, money the motive
The best part of waking up in the morning like it's Folgers
Check in the ATM, the chronic hittin' my cranium
Got green in the dome like a Stadium
Then I get a call with my dog on the line
Breaking down telling how his money on decline
And he's running out of time, the window is getting small
Tryna sympathize as I'm listening to it all
But I'm on the rise, my mission is just to ball
He said, listen, Vizzy, we all one day will fall
I haven't even dropped, please don't blow this High I just got, please don't tell me I might
Belly-flop, as he tells me the plot
How gravity won't let us gravitate to the top
Used to it all, I'm refusing his call
Never knowing in a moment I was doomed to stall. Listen

The Falling Off (I've Fallen)
Got to the top, like your ears, you just popped (I've Fallen)
Now you Falling Off (I've Fallen)
The cliff is right there I ain't going no where (I'm Falling)

So here we are, fully committed, to this
Music decision, I told to who wouldn't listen
Dante Hall, found my call in a new position
Take it to the house once I get it now that's the mission
So if you coming, or if you going
Say it now, this is your moment
Moments later the motor got to rolling
We looked up to the sky and the vultures started showing
We went inside, caught a couple eyes
So we changed to look like everybody to get by
Allies switch sides, to catch the big tides
And ride another wave, before you slip, slide
Before you nose dive, and fly to your descent
It's all God's plan arriving at this event, I
Think of my dog in my missing call logs. Then I
Extend my arms, let go, and fall off

This the falling off (I've Fallen)
Got to the top, like your ears, you just popped (I'm Falling)
Now you Falling Off (I've Fallen)
The cliff is right there I ain't going no where (I'm Falling)

I have seen better days and
Yesterday was so amazing
Used to say I never fade then
I entered the cave until I caved in
I can feel I'm lifting up
I know that I self-destruct
I hope that I risked enough
Because I ain't giving this up

Elevate, they take my wait
Cuz I'm come back in length that's the tale of the tape
Tales on my tapes of journeys I had to make
That took a turn for worse but turned out to be great
We all are born through pain, and leave this world the same
It's the things in between we see we need to gain
Everything has changed, my crown is in my backpack
Hiding in the crowd with a Strap Back Dad Hat

The Falling Off (I've Fallen)
Uh (I'm Falling)
The Falling Off (I've Fallen)
Yeah (I Fall In)

The Falling Off (I Fall In)
Don't be scared, don't be scared, don't be scared (I Fall In)
The Falling Off (Fall In)
Don't be scared if the cliff is right there, this
The Falling Off (Fall In)
