Where you said you going?
He can't fuck you like I can
Where you said you going?
He can't fuck you like I can
He can't fuck you like I can
He can't fuck you like I can
He can't fuck you like I can
He can't fuck you like I can

I... I didn't remember much
I just seen her dead in there
It definitely stood out
I remember her smell and her touch
The way she used to talk to me
It all hurts so much now
How could I waste so much time on someone who doesn't even love me?
In the end all the time I spent, it's all pointless
Now I feel like I don't even wanna live anymore
Save me
