There's a black cloud hanging over my head
And it's pouring down, pouring down
There's a black cloud hanging over my head
And it's pouring down, pouring down

The same old habits, oh
Black leather jacket, oh
Living on automatic, oh
There's a bad taste, there's a bad taste in my mouth

Mirror this morning, oh
Be good to me
And if the shark's still swimming in the ocean
Then I'm not getting in, cause

There's a black cloud hanging over my head
And it's pouring down, pouring down
There's a black cloud hanging over my head
And it's pouring down, pouring down
Heavy sun comes down too fast, oh oh oh
There's a black cloud hanging over my head
And it's pouring down, pouring down

I heard the birds singing, oh
Another sad song in, oh
If only I could join them, oh
I would fly so, I would fly so far from here

When did this bed get, oh
So uncomfortable?
And if you dream with me
Then we can both sleepwalk home, cause

There's a black cloud hanging over my head
And it's pouring down, pouring down
There's a black cloud hanging over my head
And it's pouring down, pouring down
Heavy sun comes down too fast, oh oh oh
There's a black cloud hanging over my head
And it's pouring down, pouring down

Heartbeat, heartbeat in my head, it's getting loud
And I'm hollow now
Can you hear me? Can you hear me now when...
Heartbeat, heartbeat it won't stop till you're here now
And I'm hollow now
Will you heal me? Will you show me how?

There's a black cloud hanging over my head
And it's pouring down, pouring down
There's a black cloud hanging over my head
And it's pouring down, pouring down
Heavy sun comes down too fast, oh oh oh
There's a black cloud hanging over my head
And it's pouring down, pouring down

There's a black cloud
