XYLØ

Ah, ah

I'm honest, took a fault but it's not my fault
And I can't be the only one
I'm toxic, sipping something that'll make me numb
But I can't be the only one

And the pain I feel makes me feel real
Who's gonna save me now?
'Cause everybody let's me down
Give me a little time
To un-fuck my mind
I need a miracle
I need

Someone to pick me up
Take me out
Back to mine, then lay me down
I just want a little company
Yeah, pick me up
Take me out
Back to mine, then lay me down
I just want a little company

I'm ugly when I'm jealous and I get jealous, like
All the fucking time
Yeah, but don't judge me
I'm emotional, over-critical
Like, all the fucking time

And the pain I feel makes me feel real
But it's not so bad 'cause I'm so used to being sad
Who's gonna save me now?
'Cause everybody let's me down
Give me a little time
To un-fuck my mind
I need a miracle
I need

Someone to pick me up
Take me out
Back to mine, then lay me down
I just want a little company
Yeah, pick me up
Take me out
Back to mine, then lay me down
I just want a little company

Miracle, a miracle
Miracle
(I need, I need)
Miracle, a miracle
Miracle
Who's gonna save me now?
'Cause everybody let's me down
Give me a little time
To un-fuck my mind

I need a miracle
I need

Someone to pick me up
Take me out
Back to mine, then lay me down
I just want a little company
Yeah, pick me up
Take me out
Back to mine, then lay me down

Miracle, a miracle
Miracle
Miracle
