

Success

Xzibit

Success, success

Success is not convenient
Success does not wait for you to get to it on the weekends
Success is not your friend

Success is an idea
Success is a motherfucker
Success will make you, will break you, will forsake you

It's easy to get
It's keeping it, that's the hard part, yeah
Success will turn your friends into enemies
Also the other way around

Success is being able to choose wisely or unwisely and living with it
Success does not celebrate itself
Success sucks, by yourself
Success will not make you, not blame
Success just enhances who you truly are
Success does not call you back or leave messages
Success makes contact
Success gets shit done
Has no excuses, we hate excuses

Success does not procrastinate
Because procrastination is like masturbation
You're fucking yourself
Success is never jealous
Success is never right around the corner

Success is not safe
Success is not found in the comfort zone
Success will beat your ass
Success will drop your ass like a heavyweight boxer
It will world-star you on YouTube Live
On TMZ, via IG and Snapchat, on TikTok

Success will feed people, but not your soul
'Cause everybody you feed ain't always your people
It's all about energy, can you dig it? (Can you dig it?)

All I want for you is (Success)
Hard work, blood, sweat, tears make (Success)
Do your best, Lord bless our (Success)
All I want for us is (Success)
All I want for you is (Success)
Hard work, blood, sweat, tears make (Success)
Do your best, Lord bless our (Success)
All I want for us is (Success)
All I want for you is (Success)

Success will make you believe, that it's you
It takes a special kind of motherfucker to be successful

All I want for you is (Success)
Hard work, blood, sweat, tears make (Success)

Do your best, Lord bless our (Success)
All I want for us is (Success)
All I want for you is (Success)
Hard work, blood, sweat, tears make (Success)
Do your best, Lord bless our (Success)
All I want for us is
