

Cuatro Crazy

Y La Bamba

Do you know?
Do you know what you've been doing to me?
Do you know what it's like to be out of control?
Last night
I thought of you but I can't deny
My mind has already wandered off

Here is something (Here is something)
Here is something for you
And for what I cannot say
(Here is something)
(Hey!)
Here is something (Here is something)
Here is something for you
And for what I cannot say
(Here is something)
(Hey!)

Can't pretend
That I didn't know you, now I think I do
I guess this is the only way
As you walk
Away it feels how I'm always doing you wrong
I know I can't make you stay

Here is something (Here is something)
Here is something for you
And for what I cannot say
(Here is something)
(Hey!)
Here is something (Here is something)
Here is something for you
And for what I cannot say
(Here is something)
(Hey!)

Here is, here is something
Here is something
Here is something for you
Here is, here is something
Here is something
Here is something for you
