Information is also so overloaded

We look for meaning in places that don't exist
That's the thing imagine what we can create if
We weren't limited by our own limitations

Learning to let go
It's not so easy it's not so breezy
Feeling no judgement
It's not so easy it's not so breezy
Giving yourself time
It's not so easy it's not so breezy
True change
It's not so easy it's not so breezy
Even then

Somehow the feelings good
To go slower slower faster
Somehow I'm feeling good
To be older

Somehow the feelings good
To go slower slower faster
Somehow I'm feeling good
To be older older faster

Somehow the feelings good
To go slower slower faster
Somehow I'm feeling good
To be older older faster

I opened up my diary filled with
Memories of my 20s
Moments of contemplating, moments of tears
They were pitiful and silly yet
Now it all looks cute to me
The thoughts I've carried in my youth

Isn't it so crazy how we pass down
What we didn't want to
Learning to let go
It's not so easy it's not so breezy
Feeling no judgement
It's not so easy it's not so breezy
Giving yourself time
It's not so easy it's not so breezy
True change
It's not so easy it's not so breezy

If you keep suppressing, it'll eventually drive you crazy
I only learned this 29 years later
Time keeps moving faster and faster
Information is also so overloaded

We look for meaning in places that don't exist
That's the thing imagine what we can create if
We weren't limited by our own limitations
Do you want to?

Put on wings
Put on wings
Fly away

Somehow I'm feeling good
