

You fall in love
I think in circles
I think in circles
I hear myself but I shove it way
And I, I, I, I, I, I, I, I, I
Didn't even realize
Didn't even realize
Didn't even realize
I, I, I, I, I, I, I, I
I want you to surrender
I want you to surrender
I, I, I, I, I, I, I, I
I want you to surrender
I want you to surrender
I want you to surrender
I want you to
Fall in love

You fall in love with yourself
You fall in love with yourself
You fall in love with yourself
You fall in love with yourself and the ones around you
Yourself and the ones around you
Yourself and the ones around you
Yourself and the ones around you fall in love
You fall in love
You fall in love
You fall in love

When it ain't no remedy
Then I get my weapons from the
When it ain't no remedy
Then I get my weapons from the
When it ain't no remedy
Then I get my weapons from the clouds
Under the emergency
Some people went up, some went straight down
What if I don't run away
Maybe I got two feet in the ground
The book was falling down
An arm that tried to reach (I'll rush to surrender)
The truth was hard to beat (I'll rush to surrender)
The rain was over me (I'll rush to surrender)
I'm learning more and more how to ride the coaster
We can play this game on high or low
Whoever dies the most gotta buy the coke?
You fall in love with yourself
You fall in love

You fall in love with yourself
You fall in love with yourself
You fall in love with yourself
You fall in love with yourself and the ones around you
Yourself and the ones around you
Yourself and the ones around you
Yourself and the ones around you fall in love
You fall in love

You fall in love
You fall in love
