

How Will I Know

Yael Naim

Years after you've gone
I'm feeling fine and I fight to be strong
But when I'm laughing
Well, it's not quite the same
Years after the tears
I swore to not let it happen again
The pain is gone but so is the flame

Now how will I know
Right from the start
How will I know
Healing my heart
Can I let go
What I have not
When the wind blows us apart

Mieux - comme quant il pleut
Comme au milieu d'un adieu silencieux
De notre rêve
Je me suis réveillée
Vie - tu a choisi
Pour avancer - ni remord, ni regret
Mais si tu pouvais
Retrouver l'envie

How will I know
Right from the start

How will I know
Healing my heart
How to let go
What I have not
When the wind blows us apart

Don't live without
What you have found
Just let it shout
You hear the sound
Comes from profound
To chase the doubt

Shame - then comes the blame
Look at us now
And see what we became
Turning in circles
Still feeling the same
Pleure - parce que t'as peur
Tu vas vouloir l'oublier ta douceur
Si tu pouvais, apaiser ton cœur

How will I know, next time it starts
How will I know, protecting my heart
How will I grow, sans la douceur
How will I know, où est mon cœur
