

Make a Child

Yael Naim

You can make a child
But you're going have to dive through
I feel so alive
Going to jump into the big blue

You can make a child
But you're gonna have to undo
Everything you are
Everything you thought that you knew

You can, you can even cry
Worry about the same old lies
No matter what they will advice
See I'm gonna make it anywhere so

You can make a child
Just a little green and some blue
Didn't realise
What I was about to go through

You can make a child
Think of what your mother told you
It's the biggest love
And it's really gonna hit you

You can, you can dry your eyes
Stop harping on the old times
You can say it sounds so wild
But I'm gonna wake up everyday saying
I made a child, made a child...

You can make a child
It's the only thing you can't fake
So afraid when I
Think of all the mess that he'll make

You can make a child
Do you think he will be like you
Simply as you are
You will figure out how to

How to overcome the fears
You've kept inside for many years
I will try to build his faith
But I'm gonna let go of my plans
And sing it out...

Make a child, make a child, make a child
Drying my eyes
Make a child, make a child, make a child

Drying my eyes now I'm gonna take it anywhere
Cause it's all I want, it's all I am
Now it's going to start
Falling apart, playing a part

Drying my eyes

See I'm gonna do the best I can
Now it's everything I want to be
It's so much more than I thought
More than forever
You've opened my heart

You can make a child...

You can make a child
But you're gonna have to undo
Everything you are
Everything you thought that you knew

You can make a child
But you're gonna have to dive through
I can make the dive
Gonna jump into the big blue
