

Sweet Thing

Yazoo

Time has come to say goodbye
I know it's gonna make you cry
But you belong to another my love
And half a love there just isn't enough

I am so tired
And I just can't wait around for you
I am so tired
And I always thought we'd see it through yeah

I've waited all this time for you
Believed your promises were true
I keep believing that you mean what you say
Be mine tomorrow, now tomorrow's today

I am so tired
And I just can't wait around for you
I am so tired
And I always thought we'd see it through yeah

And I often sit and wonder why
You're not with me tonight
I stayed at home remaining true
While you do what you wanna do

And I often sit and wonder why oh
You're not with me tonight
And I stay at home remaining true
While you do what you wanna do

I am so tired
And I just can't wait around for you
I am so tired
And I always thought we'd see it through yeah
So tired, so tired
So tired, so tired
So tired
