

Raise Your Glass

Ye Banished Privateers

We sail all the oceans, we roam every sea
Raise, raise, raise your glass
We drink every potion, we pay every fee
Raise, raise, raise your glass, hey
Raise your glass and down it

We touch every port, and we touch every bar
Raise, raise, raise your glass
We've seen every court and we've seen every star
Raise, raise, raise your glass, hey
Raise your glass and down it, hey

We met Davy Jones and we swam away
Raise, raise, raise your glass
We broke some bones, and we lost our pay
Raise, raise, raise your glass, hey
Raise your glass and down it

We sing for kings and we sing for peers
Raise, raise, raise your glass
We sing them gay as we drink their beers
Raise, raise, raise your glass, hey
Raise your glass and down it

Sink that grog and down that rum
Raise, raise, raise your glass
Bring the smog, there's more huh to come
Raise, raise, raise your glass, hey
Raise your glass and down it

What shall we do when times are rough?
What shall we do when we start to cough?
What shall we do when we're out of snuff?
What shall we do when we've had enough?
What shall we do when the dealer's bluff
What should we do when we're of-the-cuff
What should we do when they string our scruff
What shall we do when we're in the buff

My neighbour's shithouse fell to the ground now
Ours is leaning plenty, then
My old horse through the ice went and drowned
Now yours is weak and limping
Run to the tavern and spend your last pound
It's better to starve while drinking
Yes, reach for the bottle and pass it around
Cause tomorrow, it might be empty

We stink of sweats and we stink of groin
Raise, raise, raise your glass
But we pay our debts and we share our coin
Raise, raise, raise your glass, hey
Raise your glass and down it

We're glad you're here, and we're glad you sing
Raise, raise, raise your glass
We're pissed on beer, and we're on the swing

Raise, raise, raise your glass, hey
Raise your glass and down it

Wherever we go, there's a friend to be found
Raise, raise, raise your glass
So, wherever we go, there's another one more round
Raise, raise, raise your glass, hey
Raise your glass and down it
And down it
