Consequences

Years & Years

Consequences

Where are you now?
What is the truth?
Did you walk out?
Are you confused?
I doubt it

You, you
Lost what you had
Just as you found it

No matter what you heard
The consequences you deserve

Did I ever give a damn about the pain?
Did I ever really care who was to blame?
I was waiting for the moment you would change
But that moment never came

You're gonna have to suffer
Consequences, consequences, consequences
You're gonna have to suffer
Consequences, consequences, consequences

Do you feel hurt
By what's been said?
You kept your word
But not your head
And I allowed it

You, you
Lost what you had
Just as you found it

You know you can't reverse
The consequences you deserve (You deserve)

Did I ever give a damn about the pain?
Did I ever really care who was to blame?
I was waiting for the moment you would change
But that moment never came

You're gonna have to suffer
Consequences, consequences, consequences

No matter what you heard
The consequences you deserve
(Consequences, consequences)
No matter what you heard
The consequences you deserve

Did I ever give a damn about the pain?
Did I ever really care who was to blame?
I was waiting for the moment you would change
But that moment never came

You're gonna have to suffer
Consequences, consequences, consequences
Consequences, consequences, consequences
You're gonna have to suffer
Consequences, consequences, consequences
Consequences, consequences, consequences
