

Crave

Years & Years

You come in and out of my dreams
Fuck with my head
Making me crazy

I keep coming back to the scene
Back to the bed
And contemplating

Got all I wanted
But if I'm honest, I must confess

The only thing I crave is the pain from you
I'll do anything to stay if you want me to
Baby, I don't ever wanna replace all the heartache
For a dream come true
The only thing I crave is the pain from you

You said that you'd do me no harm
Now it's what I want
Give me what I ask for

Gone too far for love to remain
How can I adore you
When your body drives me insane?

Got all I wanted
But if I'm honest, I must confess

The only thing I crave is the pain from you
I'll do anything to stay if you want me to
Baby, I don't ever wanna replace all the heartache
For a dream come true
The only thing I crave is the pain from you

How could you ever leave
When you know I crave you?
How could you ever leave
When you know I would die for you?

How could you ever leave?
How could you ever leave?

The only thing I crave is the pain from you
I'll do anything to stay if you want me to
Baby, I don't ever wanna replace all the heartache
For a dream come true
The only thing I crave is the pain from you

How could you ever leave
When you know I crave you?
How could you ever leave
When you know I would die for you?

How could you ever leave?
How could you ever leave?
