

Cupid's Bow

Years & Years

You've done something to me
And I love the way it feels
But maybe, I just don't know what I want
And it's too good to be true
But I love the way it feels
And I'm running out of patience
Is this the moment I've been waiting for
Somebody like yeah!

Somebody like yeah!
Just follow the light
I wanna believe
I wanna trust, yeah!
I've got someone in mind
Someone I need
Somebody like you

I've been watching you sweat
So, stop acting so stupid
No, you just don't know what you want
You should be told what to do
Oh, then you'll know
Oh, then you'll know
Oh, cupid's bow is looking for

Somebody like yeah!
Just follow the light
I wanna believe
I wanna trust, yeah!
I've got someone in mind
Someone I need
Somebody like

Somebody, your body, your body
Baby, don't tell me you never get lonely
I wanna hold you to know you're the only
One to see me through the other side
Body, somebody, your body
Baby, don't tell me you never get lonely
I know that you know it's coming, it's coming
Cupid's bow is looking for

Somebody like yeah!
Somebody like yeah!
Just follow the light
I wanna believe
I wanna trust, yeah!
I've got someone in mind
Someone I need
Somebody like you
