

Reflection

Years & Years

Walking to your house and I don't know why
Or if I'm gonna make it out alive
You put a spell on me
I had too much too soon, spilled my ego on the floor
Then I picked it up and found myself at your door
You put a spell on me

Now we can both pretend
That something's not happenin'
We could fall in love
But we both know that's not happenin'

Superficial touch is so outdated
That's why you're the vice that gets me jaded
Caught in a fantasy, oh, oh, oh

Hold me, just one time (Just one time)
Just one time

Now we can both pretend
That something's not happenin'
We could fall in love
But we both know that's not happenin'
You're dancin' by yourself
Inside your innocence
I could be your love
But we both know that's not happenin'

Starin' at the wall then my reflection
Starin' at the wall then my reflection

Hold me, just one time (Just one time)
Just one time

Now we can both pretend
That something's not happenin'
We could fall in love
But we both know that's not happenin'
You're dancin' by yourself
Inside your innocence
I could be your love
But we both know that's not happenin'

Starin' at the wall then my reflection
Starin' at the wall then my reflection

Starin' at the wall then my reflection
Starin' at the wall then my reflection
