

Strange And Unusual

Years & Years

There's a fire in the sky above me
And the light undressed my soul
So naked and so lovely
I feel lighter than falsetto

My eyes open up for you
My spine chills when you're in the room
What is it about you that makes me feel this way?

Strange and unusual
It's getting critical
Ugly but beautiful
Strange and unusual

Strange and unusual
Beyond metaphysical
It's getting critical
Strange and unusual

Confusion times a million
Constantly chasing us
The end of the beginning
I swear your skin is dangerous

My eyes open up for you
My spine chills when you're in the room
What is it about you that makes me feel this way?

Strange and unusual
It's getting critical
Ugly but beautiful
Strange and unusual

Strange and unusual
Beyond metaphysical
It's getting critical
Strange and unusual

Can't help but love you this way
I can't help but love you this way
Can't help but love you this way
I can't help but love you this way

Strange and unusual
It's getting critical
Ugly but beautiful
Strange and unusual

Strange and unusual
Beyond metaphysical
It's getting critical
Strange and unusual

Can't help but love you this way
I can't help but love you this way
Can't help but love you this way
I can't help but love you this way (Strange and unusual)

Can't help but love you this way
I can't help but love you this way
