

Up In Flames

Years & Years

I'm touching a secret
He's asking forgiveness
Tell me your pain
Is it haunting you now?
14 years and it's crumbling down
You gotta be strong boy
You gotta be tough
Don't you know you're a man?
Anyone could have played ya
Weakness won't be your saviour

They said it's innocence
Cast out the devil sins
Don't wanna come between you and her, keep arguing
I'll remember everything, I

I dreamed of a life so big and tall
An escape from who I was
And our past is going up in flames
And the future can be rearranged
Oh
And we're dancing to the sound
Of your demons falling down
And our past is going up in flames (flames)
And the future will be rearranged

Shes got a new life, you know
She's happier but she wonders, what now?
Is all of this pain what I wanted?
The branches of me are distorted

They said it's innocence
Cast out the devil sins
Don't wanna come between you and her, keep arguing
I'll remember everything, I

I dreamed of a life so big and tall
An escape from who I was
And our past is going up in flames
And the future can be rearranged
Oh
And we're dancing to the sound
Of your demons falling down
And our past is going up in flames
And the future will be rearranged

I dreamed of a life so big and tall
An escape from who I was
And our past is going up in flames
And the future can be rearranged
Oh
And we're dancing to the sound
Of your demons falling down
And our past is going up in flames
And the future will be rearranged
