It's 2093 on 'em
It's 2093 when ya
When ya live like me and it's 2093, then I hope that you see it, huh
I made every God cry
Do you live a lot? Do you live a lie?
I know what happens when you die
Do you know what happens when you die?
I could see the future with one eye
I'ma live it up, I got one life
I got way too much money, I don't care 'bout the price
Yeah, I die tryin', I don't try dyin'
Yeah, might of tried once
Way too many X pills, yeah, for one album
Yeah, I'ma futuristic Al Capone
Don't try to talk to me, send ya home

They might not get this shit at first
It's like fittin' all that Porsche up inside a purse
Is it a blessin' or curse? I just did it first
I could ruin ya life, make it a lot worse
We been doin' shit that you never heard of
I got new shit, I invent a word
I been livin' life that you never heard of
I got billion dollar money live inside a turtle
That mean you can't get in
That mean you can't fit in with the Goats of this motherfuckin' shit
Yeah, I done heard a lot of shit, yeah
I heard it from my fuckin' space ship, huh
You thinkin' all that shit, but you don't say shit, huh
How you sayin' all that shit, but you ain't said shit?
How you doin' all this shit, but you ain't try yet?
How you make a lot of money, but you ain't die yet?
You ain't live like us, you ain't flyin'
