

How Many Years

Yebba

How many years will it take for these tears to dry?
Oh my Lord please don't pass me by
Where can I run when my running is out of time?

These are the moments that I'm with you
Under the pressure I'll see you through
Live out the wonder, way past the borderline
Adventure as far as the eye can see
I'll try not to miss you too desperately
Live out the wonder, way past the borderline

It comes and it goes but it's always in control of me
How the hell on earth can I set me free?
Where can I run when the ground moves beneath my feet?

These are the moments that I'm with you
Under the pressure I'll see you through
Live out the wonder, way past the borderline
Adventure as far as the eye can see
I'll try not to miss you too desperately
Live out the wonder, way past the borderline
The borderline
