

Another Drink

Yelawolf

Yeah, let's take a minute and talk about this, um
Girl clappin' her asscheeks with fantastic rhythm
I'm such a nerd that I told her she shouldn't be a stripper
Then I took her backstage to the cage and I chilli-dipped her
Guilty, and I'm dirty-South filthy
I'll turn you out quickly, then leave without tipping
Stupid, I'm Swayze, I hate to do it
Look, really, there's nothing to it, jump back in this Trunk Muzik, yeah
Still got it, baby, you still got it
Big box bodies, Bentleys, and exotics
Went from Alabama to crossing the Atlantic
In big beds, sipping whiskey and Hot Toddys
That's a lot of Bs and, bitch, I'm still buzzin'
That's a lotta Gs and, bitch, I'm still hungry
Got '80s baby syndrome, I'm addicted to hustlin'
Hold up, can I get you a glass of bubbly?

Let's have another drink tonight
You can have another one on me
We can party like it's no tomorrow
You can have anything you see
Let's have another drink tonight
You can have another one on me
We can party like it's no tomorrow
You can have anything you see
Let's have another drink

Yeah, cause I'm crazy and you know it
Crazy smart, a kid done became a poet
A lover became a fighter, a fighter became a writer
I strike like a fucking cobra, a skater turned into a biker
Biker turned to a leader, lead 'em and take 'em higher
Oh, business'll get you higher, the boss to get you fired
Work harder, I make 'em tired, they stereotype Messiah
Tried to lock me up, I jumped over the barbed wire
No guts, no bruises, no fucks been given there

Purple label, Ralph Lauren pourin' off my back like [?]
From recordin' this whole fucking trip
But I balance-beam and jump out the trunk
Jumped straight into stream and strait
Go commercial, Ricky Bobby this shit
But first, let's take a sip

Let's have another drink tonight
You can have another one on me
We can party like it's no tomorrow
You can have anything you see
Let's have another drink tonight
You can have another one on me
We can party like it's no tomorrow
You can have anything you see
Let's have another drink

I drained my pockets at the club, pulled the sink plug
Fired up a dub, smellin' like a stink bug
Got the one you love laid out on a mink rug

I ate that pussy like I just smoked bath salts
I am a flower jumpin' straight up out the asphalt
I took a shower up in the fountain of youth, too
Yeah, I took a hand off God, gave me the gold
I put it up on the mantle, Harley Davidson handle
Parked straight in my living room, big house full of animals
And Le Labo candles, no [?] off the Tennessee river
Because I'm a catfish Billy, silly
Still got the tote bag and Mossy Oak camo
Hold up, you know we gonna do it, right?
Hold up, you know it's gonna be tonight
Wait a minute
This AMEX is burnin' a hole, so go
Get your friends and let's roll

Let's have another drink tonight
You can have another one on me
We can party like it's no tomorrow
You can have anything you see
Let's have another drink tonight
You can have another one on me
We can party like it's no tomorrow
You can have anything you see
Let's have another drink
