

HillBilly Einstein

Yelawolf

If I had one dream, that I could dream it all
I'd pass out drunk on the floor with the lights on
Go to sleep on the single white carpet and take off
Put my gold plaque up on every hater's wall
'Cause I was raised in a place where
People don't believe that anything is possible
But you can have it all
You can have it all

I'm feelin' real good in this motherfucker
Snake skin boots and a old mashed trucker
Faded blue jean vest with the back marked with 1-9-7-9
Turquoise on the knuckles
Pocket full of credit cards, no limit though
Swipe it till I need to replace new strips
Got the no-touch Amex metal
Should've left the dealership with a new whip
Long way from the trap like a loose bear
Flipped a couple new styles with the new hair
Little bit of rock 'n' roll like a rockin' chair
I'm back and forth like the windchime in the air
Even when I'm gettin' high, still ridin' low
Could've been a quarterback how I get throwed
Imported silk rag, Alexander McQueen
Skulls drip from the neck to the elbows
Let me tell you

If I had one dream, I would live a life like this one
I wouldn't put a rabbit in a hat with a bat, just an ice cold
Pabst Blue Ribbon
If I had one wish, I would live a life like this, fuck wishin' though
I'm a livin' God by law, manifestin' third eye visuals
Hillybilly Einstein

If I had one dream, that I could dream it all
I'd pass out drunk on the floor with the lights on
Go to sleep on the single white carpet and take off
Put my gold plaque up on every hater's wall
'Cause I was raised in a place where
People don't believe that anything is possible
But you can have it all
You can have it all

Tell that bitch who run up on me in the parkin' lot
At Waffle House and rob me for that sack, I'm good
Seventeen, tryna make a couple bucks
So we can jump fresh in a pair of new duds
Tough lesson on the block, little did he know
I stood with a blade hid down in the bush
Probably should've killed the boy
But the adrenalin runnin' through my heart was enough not to push
Just knowin' I could
Change the rest of my life and how I saw shit
I could either be the young king of a small town
Or shake it off and rise up above it
Been dissed by the most liked kids
Since I don't know when, shit, don't remember when it

Was a time when I fell in line with the in-crowd
Shit, how, when the school is public?
With a mama like, "fuck it"
Black eye from the bully, I got busted
If I didn't hit him back, got another smack
Dried up, two tears in the bucket
I love my mama for that
I remember lovin' drama till the drama come back tenfold
And wonder why I'm stuck in the pintos
And now I'm gettin' money, but you know that I've been broke
I took a lotta karma, had to fix the dent though
'Cause I was wreckin' lifes, only one vehicle
Myself, now I buckle up and I hit roads
Not for lack of mistakes but what I did with those
Sometimes I gotta jump on my soapbox
I feel responsible for tellin' y'all folks these things
Success ain't obtained by what others around you think
Get out of your own way, get after the green

But if I had one dream, I would live a life like this one
I wouldn't put a rabbit in a hat with a bat, just an ice cold
Pabst Blue Ribbon
If I had one wish, I would live a life like this, fuck wishin' though
I'm a livin' God by law, manifestin' third eye visuals
Hillybilly Einstein

If I had one dream, that I could dream it all
I'd pass out drunk on the floor with the lights on
Go to sleep on the single white carpet and take off
Put my gold plaque up on every hater's wall
'Cause I was raised in a place where
People don't believe that anything is possible
But you can have it all
You can have it all

Yeah
Keep hustlin', baby
Keep pushin'
(You can have it all) There's enough wealth in this world for you
(You can have it all) Slumerican, that's family
Misfits, outsiders, dreamers (You can have it all)
And the door's wide open
(You can have it all) That's love
It ain't what you do (You can have it all), it's how you do it
Catfish Billy, baby
King of the low-lifes, Slum