See there I'm nutty

I could kick your face and keep my shoe laces clean
Gotta plate full of stew
A couple of home brew
I'm leaning left looking for walls to hold on to

If you bounce and you throwed
And you know who got the deal
If your mouth is all gold
And you know who got the grills
Holler

[Rick E. Bobby:] WOO! Alright man! We did it!

I- I don't wanna be raining on your parade, (Yeah) but I gotta tell you, that was some of the dumbest driving I ever seen in my life. (Thank You) I know you won the race but you're not gonna live forever

I'm not stupid Lucius. No one lives forever, No one. But uh, advances in modern science and my high level income. I mean it's not crazy to think I can't live to be 245, maybe 300
