

Legend

Yelawolf

Don't let me complicated, over-explaining who I am and who I've been around, now
I went from [?]

No rubber bands now
But it's hard not to flex, as I am now
Took care of the fam now and gave mama a legal Marijuana brand now
Shit, we're still in the driveway
But not at the house though
I ain't got enough roof for the whips
So I lift that bitch, parked at the studio
Gave my homie a Harley for his birthday
Not a big deal though
Similarly is my little brother, now the blood brother, but for real bros look
Don't believe blood is thicker than water
That shit is a myth, bro
I got blood kind that would never get into one of my rock shows, look
I gotta spit at, slap, kick my bitch a 8 Mile Lunch
Then I snap, click, flipped and dropped Pop the Trunk
And the story is still being written
I'm a living juxtaposition
Yelawolf is what happens when you let the devil do all the babysitting
I was just being groomed
A king coming out of the tomb
I found god on a cereal box with a styrofoam bowl and a plastic spoon

And that's how you make a legend
That's how you make a legend
Yeah
That's how you make a legend
I'm guessing
And that's how you make a legend
That's how you make a legend

Are you on the level, huh?

(Give up everything you loved once)
And that's how you make a legend
(Give everything that you paid for)
That's how you make a legend
Yeah
That's how you make a legend
I'm guessing
And that's how you make a legend
That's how you make a legend
