

Million Dollar Deal

Yelawolf

(In the kitchen and it's Taysty)

I just shook a million dollar deal and I never left the crib
I ain't into flexin' bread, I'm just sayin' shit is real
Got accountants on the line, man, I don't even see the bills
Creek Water comin' up, all I did was crack the seal
I remember EBT, food stamps for a meal
Had to use a fuckin' grill to put heat up in the crib
Baby momma hanging clothes out on the fence back in the hills
Comin' home with barely nothin' after workin' it for years
Workin' hard till all my peers dropped off like fallen tears
Didn't have no time to play, I was playin' with them fears
If I do not get the break to get the fuck up outta here
I'ma run up in that bank and show the teller heavy steel, yeah
Success means nothin' less
Than happiness and peace, and for me, that's a private jet
Not because I think that money could come save my soul
But just because I want to wrap that bitch in Mossy Oak

I done shook a million dollar deal
Knee deep in the water, but I had it up to here
Baptized in the hustle, I've been steady stackin' bills
Go to sleep, then wake up to the sound of vacuum seals
I done shook a million dollar deal
Knee deep in the water, but I had it up to here
Baptized in the hustle, I've been steady stackin' bills
Go to sleep, then wake up to the sound of vacuum seals

Y'all wonder why can't nobody stop him
'Cause I was just fifteen
Watchin' pops deteriorate off the oxycontin
I was just ten
When my older sister and all of her homies were Molly poppin'
Outer body, lookin' at myself go the wrong way
Damn it, I gotta stop him
Okay, my pops was a rollin' stone
No wonder I rolled so far away from home
Don't even let nobody close to me
'Cause I'm always feelin' like there's somethin' wrong
Family got me paranoid
That out the blue, somebody'll tear a void
So big inside my heart
That suffocatin' somethin' that I can't avoid
Walls bigger than the walls of China
I took down all your pictures
And I'm 'bout to cover up the tattoos
Hurtin' 'cause they all reminders
Of somethin' I'll never see again
Lately, don't know what I'm believin' in
I'm just tryna find peace
And these folks all here are dramatic as CNN
Piece on the left side
Deposit slip came from Chase
Never know when a reaper is comin' to get me
So ain't a single day to waste
And, motherfucker I done wasted enough of my youth years
I had the odds stacked against me, I should've been broke

But truth is

I done shook a million dollar deal
Knee deep in the water, but I had it up to here
Baptized in the hustle, I've been steady stackin' bills
Go to sleep, then wake up to the sound of vacuum seals
I done shook a million dollar deal
Knee deep in the water, but I had it up to here
Baptized in the hustle, I've been steady stackin' bills
Go to sleep, then wake up to the sound of vacuum seals
