

Over Again

Yelawolf

Why do I feel like killing myself with this love?
Why do I drown my sorrow inside of the clubs?
Why must I do these things to hurt just to feel alive?
Maybe my icons are desperate, may be why
I'm not afraid to tell God I'm a troubled soul
Trouble is how I ride all this shit, so I guess he knows
I made a living off of gravediggin'
I'm a stone setter with no diamonds just one in the rough
So put two in my cup, I'm downtrodden, ridin'

I can't see you again
Too many drinks again
(Over again, over again, over again, over again)
Too many drinks again
(Over again, over again, over again, over again)
I can't see you again
(Over again, over again, over again)
Too many drinks

Scarred from what the knife brung, beauty cuts deep
Especially tonight, yeah, especially
I walked the broken line 'til I reach a deep trench
Swim across the risky river, no defense
Dark days, baby boy, no lights on
I braved the alleyways, cold grip, python
Braced myself for impact with the beer back
A crooked reflection, even though the mirror's flat
Molotov cocktail to my ether, hot flash
Nightmare, sweat stains in the sheets, yeah, it's a dream state
Hell's fire is a deep lake and the devil is a cheap date
He's a cheap date, cheap date, cheap date

I can't see you again
Too many drinks again
(Over again, over again, over again, over again)
Too many drinks again
(Over again, over again, over again, over again)
I can't see you again
(Over again, over again, over again)
Too many drinks

(DJ Klever, bitch
Uh
Let's go)
