

I'm feeling no weight
With power that's pressure
The fortune to be made
Here I'm laid back at ease
I'm ready to please
Yes fate is my horizon
When time doesn't matter
I will find my way
To the gods up above
The questions are answered
When you've been touched
When you've been touched by love
Touched by love
Touched by love
When you've been touched by love

I'm going through the heaven of love
And the hell of doubt
The brightest of light
And darkest cloud
You're close to me and far away
Time is passing slowly
I hear my voice
As if somebody else were speaking
I see you like in a mirror
Unreal
Unreal

Deep down inside
I open what is there
On images clear
I found what I had lost
I'm ready to please
Fate is my horizon
When times are doesn't matter
I will find my way
To the gods up above
The questions are answered
When you've been touched
When you've been touched by love
When you've been touched by love
Touched by love
When you've been touched by love
Touched by love

When you've been touched by love
