Cry Wolf

Yellow Claw

You're sharp like the steel that you eat with
So cold, calculated and ruthless
You share with me words from your rude lips
But you don't mean it, but you don't mean it

You dragging me up, you dragging me up
I'm stuck to the side of your love
You're telling me that, telling me that
I couldn't survive without us
So when you talk, when you talk I believe it
But you don't mean it, but you don't mean it

I'm running to the sounds of the night
Into your arms open wide
Tryna catch me if you can
Confess I'm calling run
I would cry wolf
I would cry wolf for you

You're stuck to my tongue like a sickness
I chew on your name like I need it
I told you once I'm addicted
But I don't mean it (but I don't mean it)

You dragging me up, you dragging me up
I'm stuck to the side of your love
You're telling me that, telling me that
I couldn't survive without us
So when you talk, when you talk I believe it
But you don't mean it, but you don't mean it

I'm running to the sounds of the night
Into your arms open wide
Tryna catch me if you can
Confess I'm calling run
I would cry wolf
I would cry wolf for you

I would cry wolf for you
I would cry wolf for you
