

Saviour Complex

Yellow House

It all started to unravel in the spring of '94
Looking back now, it seems the writing was on the wall
You've never seen a kid with a heart so sore
If I could take back all I did
If I could take back all I saw

Saviour Complex

Are you sorry that you met me?
Are you scared of who I am?
Gonna move in with your sister?
Gonna get out while you can?
They say I won't recover, I'm too far gone
I'm living undercover
I'm a ticking time bomb

Saviour Complex

I feel so sorry for my mother, burdened by my ills
It's for her that I got sober, why I'm staying on my pills
I heard her praying for me in hope the heavens let me in May God show me mercy as I explain where I've been
