

Hiding in the Light

Yellowcard

Can we get on this ride again
Just one more
Wanna feel fire from your skin
Wanna let my heart pour
Over you, into you
Was a prophet preaching mistakes
Before you
Made a declaration of faith
It was always us two
Coming clean, chasing dreams

All this traveling in time
Trying to pull myself apart
You were hiding in the light
I was drowning in the dark
Now I'll choose life, and I'll get by
And sing until the day I die
All this traveling in time
Trying to pull myself apart
It's over

Baby, when it's winter again
We'll stay warm
Even when we're living in sin
You make me want more
Dressed in black, throw it back
Give me all of you every time
Destroy me
You and me for the rest of this life
The future I see
The future I see

All this traveling in time
Trying to pull myself apart
You were hiding in the light
I was drowning in the dark
Now I'll choose life, and I'll get by
And sing until the day I die
All this traveling in time
Trying to pull myself apart
It's over
It's over
It's over

All this traveling in time
Trying to pull myself apart
You were hiding in the light
I was drowning in the dark

All this traveling in time

It's over
It's over
It's over
