

Honest from the Jump

Yellowcard

We were just distant stars
Cosmic colliding hearts
So quick some suns will burn
From dust to dust we turn

I don't mind
We were almost there
That first time
When you almost cared

Just one street corner kiss
Content creation bliss
Take, take, give nothing back
(Feed on a feeling and live forever)
Long live what will not last
(Down to the bone now, but still I)

I don't mind
We were almost there
That first time
When you almost cared
Weak within
I was calling home
Telling them
You are all I know

You hold no love for anyone
You were not honest from the jump
You hold no love for anyone
You were not honest from the jump

You hold no love for anyone
You were not honest from the jump
You hold no love for anyone
You were not honest from the jump

We were just distant stars

I don't mind
We were almost there
That first time
When you almost cared
Weak within
I was calling home
Telling them
You are all I know

Weak within
I was calling home
Telling them
You are all I know
