

Run for Your Life

Yendri

The only way to survive is to run for your life
I'm running for my undead life, just trying to survive
To save a life that isn't there, but I am here
People running after me and I'm just trying to flee
They're just too fast, and my hope is lost
Now they're also in the air and on motorbikes
They're trying to find me, it's just a nightmare
I'm getting surrounded, no way to escape
They're getting closer and I can't get away
