

Don't Take No For An Answer

Yes

Amidst these mountains again, I realize
I'd better change my reservations
Came here so hastily
I'm not in such a hurry
Now I'm left, holding the key, the key

Don't take no for an answer
Don't take no for an answer

Amidst these mountains again, I realize
As the train pulled out the station
I recall waving to you
For on the winter morning
Some might have shed a tear, or two
Amidst these mountains again
Amidst these mountains again
