

Future Memories

Yes

In the mirror of the mind projecting
All I want my life reflecting
Mmm-hmm
To revere the stars, far and free
Yet keep them near and dear to me
Mmm-hmm
All I seek to find through universal mind
Must surely come to pass

Future memories
Future memories

Steal away
There are shadows at play
When the black night is too long to bear
Beware
Beware

From this moment forward
I don't want to make another memory
Without you
From this moment forward
(I don't want to make another memory) I don't want to make another memory
Without you
Without you

Through all of life's complexities
I often miss the scenery
Mmm-hmm
Mmm-mmm-hmm
Reflected in the mirror the longings of the heart
Of many moons ago
All that tomorrow holds

Time encircles time expanding
Ripples on the surface of my mind
Waves of clarity
Waves of clarity

Composing the dream upon the mirror's canvas screen
Swirling colours call to me as if from a higher century
From a higher century

Future memories

From this moment forward (Shadows at play)
I don't want to make another memory
Without you

From this moment forward, no, no
(I don't want to make another memory) I don't want to make another memory
Without you

I don't want to make another memory
Without you

(I don't want to make another memory) I don't want to make another memory

Another memory
Without you

Without you
Without you
