I See You

I see you, la la, I see you I see you, la la, I see you I see you, la la, I see you

Sun smiling sun through the cave of your hair Wind washing tulips out of space sitting there

I love you, at your door second floor, first world war, I love you Who listens, tell your friend I'm aware that she care, who list ens

Green specks bright spiraling out in the sky Catch my eye turn my head have to look don't know why

I see you, everywhere behind your hair over there, I see you I see you, though your eyes can tell lies I sympathize, I see y ou

Sun smiling sun through the cave of your hair Wind washing tulips out of space sitting there I love you

I see you, everywhere behind your hair over there, I see you I love you, at your door second floor, first world war, I love you I love you, I love you, I love you, I love you