yeule

Throw me a bone so I can heal
A potion no one else can feel
Ink on paper says, "You look so blue"
You're an angel, a demon too
Sweet and sultry, cinnamon skin
All your knives, drip, drip in sin
I love it when you pretend
Broken blood, blood, bloody hands

Insignificant other
Alien mother
It's never over
With my virtual lover
What can I blame?
Mentally insane
Psycho episode
Malware in my code

Put me on a throne
Can't be on my own
Oh, oh, oh no thoughts, empty
I don't think it's healthy
Bite me, vampy
I taste just like candy
Why don't I smile?
It's just been a little while
Where do I end and begin?
Porcelain, cinnamon skin

Cyber heat, cyber meat
Android blood tastes, oh, so sweet
There is a boy and girl inside me, too
Nonbinary, it's true
Electric bones, electric heat
Android blood tastes, oh, so sweet
I love to play, play, play pretend
Human body, human friends

Throw me a bone so I can heal
A potion no one else can feel
Ink on paper says, "You look so blue"
You're an angel, a demon too
Sweet and sultry, cinnamon skin
All your knives, drip, drip in sin
I love it when you play pretend
Broken blood, blood, bloody
Throw me a bone so I can heal
A potion no one else can feel
Ink on paper says, "You look so blue"
You're an angel, a demon too
Sweet and sultry, cinnamon skin
All your knives, drip, drip in sin
I love it when you play pretend
Broken blood, blood, bloody
