

Ending

yeule

When the rain falls down
What do you see?
When the rain falls down
What do you see?

When it starts again next day
And pretends like every day
As the smile fades away
What do you say?

When the rain falls down
What do you see?
When the rain falls down
What do you see?

When it starts again next day
And pretends like every day
As the smile fades away
What do you say?
