I <3 U

yeule

Let me in, let me try
Baby, open up your eyes
Touch the skin on your face
No one's out to get you, babe
Take me with you, let me follow you into the dark, oh
You're the fairy that I chase
You know, the ones that make you go insane?

Sew me up, stitch me up, put me back together
You know I hurt myself
You know I hurt myself
You know I hurt myself
But I heart you
But I heart you
But I heart you
But I heart you
But I heart you
But I heart you
But I heart you
But I heart you

Tell me why I
Seems like I destroy everything I touch
Look at me when you cry
You don't have to tell me why

How do you feel about a blade?
How do you make a person fade?
Empty hope, I tied a rope
And couldn't bring myself to choke
Open wounds on you too
I know they hurt, cause mine does too
When I am blue, I think of you
In shades of pink, don't want to think
You know I can be cruel
Not just to me, but you
You know I hurt myself
You know I hurt myself
You know I hurt myself
You know I hurt myself
You know I hurt myself
You know I hurt myself

But I heart you
But I heart you
But I heart you
But I heart you
But I heart you
But I heart you
But I heart you
But I heart you
But I heart you
But I heart you
But I heart you
But I heart you
But I heart you
But I heart you
But I heart you

But I heart you
I heart you
I heart you
I heart you

But I heart you
I heart you
I heart you
