

Heartbeat, heartsink
Heart broke, don't think
Don't love, don't trust
The memory of you turns to rust
Used to be just us
Used to be honest
Used to be, used to be
Everyone uses me (Ah-ah)
Under your dewy skin (Ah-ah)
How did you get so thin? (Ah-ah)
Planted flowers in my head (Ah-ah)
Now they're rotten wilted

I would still walk
Barefoot on the glass, oh
I would still bleed out
Just for you, oh-oh
I would still love you
Ten thousand years from now
Inferno, inferno, oh-oh
If only you saw me then
Holdin' out both my hands
Over fire, over flames
Just to keep you safe

Heartbeat, heartsink
Heart broke, don't think
Don't love, don't trust
The memory of you turns to rust
Used to be just us
Used to be honest
Used to be, used to be
