

Intermission

yeule

Staring at the space that leaves us both aside
Feeling your skin is like dreaming another life
All I wanted to see was the real you
That no one could deny
I feel your touch and I say
That I, I remember you
I remember you

It's you, you, it's all of you
I know that I'm real too
Share the air that's all around
Hear the music in the sound

Tell me how to love and I will love
Tell me how to love and I will love
Tell me how to love and I will love
Tell me how to love and I will love
