

Saiko

yeule

Blood in the sink, got carried away in the bath
Think I nearly drowned
Got too high, red in my eyes
Couldn't find the words to tell you I, I

Took some pills, and told me
"I love you, unlike anyone"
I love you
He's smiling back at me with vampire teeth
Behind a bulletproof screen

Saiko boy
Saiko boy
Made you cry

Melancholically, stuck in a fantasy
Supernatural enemies
Eyes to the sky, getting eaten by
Boy with sharp teeth in a black tie
I love you

Baby, you look so good when you get high
I don't wanna wake up, wake up, I
Baby, won't you tell me when to stop?
I, I

Saiko boy
Saiko boy
Made you cry

Was it a dream when you painted me
In the colour of a machine?
Baby, can you piece me back
To be what I once was in a nice dream?
I love you

Tear me up into a million parts
Don't forget my heart
He's smiling back at me and tells me
"Baby, how can you love me?"

Baby, you look so good when you get high
I don't wanna wake up, wake up, I
Baby, won't you tell me when to stop?
I, I

Baby, you look so good when you get high
Baby, you look so good when you get high
I don't wanna wake up, wake up, I
I don't wanna wake up, wake up
