

Ride For Me

YFN Lucci

Look
I ain't gon' block the way I'm feeling
You know what I'm sayin'
I just, I just

Girl, you promised me you'd stay, but you lied to me
Why you left my side when you 'posed to been ridin' for me?
You say you don't want no temporary, well, your time funny
And it was love at first sight, but now my love runnin'
Girl, you promised me you'd stay, but you lied to me
Why you left my side when you 'posed to been ridin' for me?
You say you don't want no temporary, well, your time funny
And it was love at first sight, but now my love runnin'

Uh, told me you would stay but you left, can't explain how I felt
Gave you all my heart, you ran and took what was left
I never thought we'd fall apart, I thought this shit was to death
All that fuckin' after arguin', girl, I thought we was better
I bought you ice, I hope it melt, so many nights that I ain't slept
Think about you bitin' on your lip, huh
Thinkin' 'bout you, I don't know how I'm gon' live, yeah
Girl, you got me scarred, I don't know how it's gon' heal, yeah
Hey, unconditional, huh
Love what you told me, but you didn't do it
I never ever trolled to go against you
Only God knows what we been through
Some shit that you say, you gotta stick to

Girl, you promised me you'd stay, but you lied to me
Why you left my side when you 'posed to been ridin' for me?
You say you don't want no temporary, well, your time funny
And it was love at first sight, but now my love runnin'
Girl, you promised me you'd stay, but you lied to me
Why you left my side when you 'posed to been ridin' for me?
You say you don't want no temporary, well, your time funny
And it was love at first sight, but now my love runnin'

I caught you red-handed, I can see the proof
After all that time we wasted, look what we been through
One minute we doin' good, next minute we fightin' 'up out the blue
I'm crushed from all this pain I had built inside, look me in my eyes
Girl, in our state you 'posed to clutch that iron
Shoot back, bullets flyin'
Startin' to regret all this shit, wish I can press rewind
Thirty bands up on my wrist, now it's gon' cost my time
Said you want to hear from me, wouldn't let 'em take what's mine
All that shit done scarred my heart, it ain't no healing me
You gon' remember all that shit that you had did to me
Feeling like you doin' it on purpose, happening sequentially
You ain't showin' the right actions, wanna be with me

You promised me you'd stay, but you lied to me
Why you left my side when you 'posed to been ridin' for me?
You say you don't want no temporary, well, your time funny
And it was love at first sight, but now my love runnin'
Girl, you promised me you'd stay, but you lied to me
Why you left my side when you 'posed to been ridin' for me?
