Fuck the president, fuck the Popo
They follow me, wanna keep me close
Try to hold me back, let me go

Pick up the phone and call Michel'le
She hold me down, I gotta make the plan
If the plan don't get me then I don't care
Look in my eyes and tell me what you see
A whole lot of lives depended on me
But I hold it down I hold it down
I check in when I'm not in town
Put on a smile girl, put on a smile
Its a lot on my shoulders, I gotta balance it out
Put on a smile girl, put on a smile
I take care of you and that child

When everybody depend on you, you got nobody to run to
You got nobody to come to, when they come through you feel like fuck you
