I can't be silent, girl you changed
Tell me why you changed on me?
Why you had to change?
You know that you changed on me
Why you had to change?
Tell me why you changed on me?
Shit just ain't the same
No it ain't the same, oh nah

I showed you love when you ain't need it and no one loved us
All that stuff we went through, we was thick as blood
When that pressure big up, you can't handle it
No you can't handle it
So I went handled it
I've been ballin' out
Ballin' on a nigga bitch
And if we ain't rockin', I still would never switch
When I ain't even had no block but you let me use yours
You know I busted you nigga, what was mine was yours
We ain't had no food, all we had was us, dawg
Sellin' in these streets, I was sellin' niggas drug
Daddy gave it to me and my momma put it up
I put that on my soul then you know I got it

I can't be silent, girl you changed (Yeah, yeah)
Tell me why you changed on me? (So tell me why?)
Why you had to change? (So why you like that?)
You know that you changed on me
Why you had to change? (You changed)
Tell me why you changed on me? (You changed)
Shit just ain't the same (It's not the same no more)
No it ain't the same (It's not the same no more)

Tryna get over, tryna get over, tryna get over, tryna get over, tryna get over, over, yeah
You can't get over, can't get over, can't get over, can't get over, can't get over, over, yeah, yeah
So why you changed?
And I will never change on you
Tell me why you changed?
And I will never change on you

I never told on my brother
I never fold on my brother
I got love for my brother
Yeah, ayy, yeah
Hey, yeah
