

Pretty Please

Ylona Garcia

It's 3 AM
Depression and overthinking
Just tired of the disrespect, yeah
I'm independent
But sometimes I can't sleep at night
I get scared, wishing you were there
Hold my hand, and

Stay with me
A few minutes, all I'm needing
To, keep going
Been lying 'cause I don't wanna seem needy, but
Just hold me
I've, been dying for
You baby, and
Your loving

Tired of them constant late nights
Wishing you'd come home to me by my side
I've been looking for you
I've been on the go just looking for you
But when you're here
I'm so happy but I don't know you
Anymore, where you been babe?
I been worried sick out here wishing
You would stay-ay, wishing
You would lay here with me, and

Stay with me
A few minutes, all I'm needing
To, keep going
Been lying 'cause I don't wanna seem needy, but
Just hold me
I've, been dying for
You baby, and
Your loving
