

You And Me

Ylvis

My little priceless painted friend
I guess this is goodbye
Please don't say another word, or I'll cry
I know I'm just a simple thief
And I'm a work of art
I stole you
But I stole you too
Stole my heart

My prison days were lonely
It made me wanna scream
Trust me when I tell you
I know exactly what you mean
You were in a prison too
Just hanging on a wall
But then you came
And I set you free
Thank you, Pål
You're welcome, Scream!

You and me
Was not meant to be
No one can see me the way that you do
You looked so scared, but I'm scared
(Yes, I do)
You and me
A second we were free
A heartbroken thief and a sad work of art
We should have known it was doomed from the start

I have been caring for you, like you were my own child
You are the only one, who has seen me smile
Oh! Don't let me go, let me stay here with you
Oh, I wanna, I just wanna, I want to stay here with

You and me
(Pål!)
(Don't leave me!)
(I'm gonna miss you!)
Of course this thing was way too good to be true
I can never be with somebody like you

Goodbye, Scream
